New Orleans, La., January 21.—Secretary Hester's statement of the world's visible supply of cotton, insued to day, shows the total visible to be 4,968,625 bales, against 4,939,718 last week and 5,562,567 last year. Of this the total of American cotton is 3,752.-525, against 2,807,718 last week and 4,752.-525, against 2,807,718 last week and 4,752.-525. "continuous performance in habeas corpus."

The amendment to the law which the committee suggests would make it possible for a person confined in a private asylum to apply for a writ of habeas corpus at any time without supporting affidavits, but would require an inmate of a State hospital for the insane or for insane convicts or criminals to submit a verified petition with the certificate of two qualified medical examiners in lunacy who must certify that the inmate seeking his release is insane.

The report recommends the abolition of the defense in murder of insanity.

"A further perceptible broadening of demand for pig iron is noted at many leading centres. On the whole, there is marked improvement, with basic and Bessemer grades attracting much attention. There is evidence that the railroads are holding back considerable new business, although car orders at the West are quite liberal, and soveral large contracts are pending.

"In the primary dry goods market house sales are in progress and the break in the cotton market made no change in jobbing prices. Buyers of cotton blankets and other napped goods of a staple character are operating freely at an advance over a year ago, and stocks in all parts of the country are reported to be well cleaned up. Hoslery and underwear are in better demand, and new fall lines in cotton dress fabrics are being bought freely. Trade is light; in ginghams somewhat better, and in bleached goods stendy. Cotton yarns are dull, worsted yarns stendy and woolen yarns steady but quiet.

"Supplementary orders for spring shoes are in 2ar demand, and manufacturers regard the outlook as promising. The leather trade continues dull."

Movement to Incorporate Amherst.

Amherst, Va., January 21.—A movement is on foot to have the village of Amherst incorporated as a town. This has been attempted several times before, but in each instance sufficient opposition has developed to check the movement. This time, it is said, to be practically the unanimous desire of the citizens of the town that it be incorporated. A petition asking for this will be presented to Judge Gordon, of the Amherst Circuit Court at the next term.
